Based on the provided context, the policy exclusions are not explicitly stated. The context primarily provides information on eligibility and benefits.

The documents provided (Document 1 to Document 5) cover various aspects of the policy, including definitions, eligibility, and benefits. However, no specific exclusions are mentioned in the provided context.

Therefore, it is not possible to provide a comprehensive answer to the user's question about exclusions in this policy based on the provided context.

If you need to find information on exclusions, I recommend reviewing the entire policy document, particularly sections related to exclusions.

Policy Guidelines for Loss of Use or Paralysis

The Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy provides guidelines for Loss of Use or Paralysis in Article 6 of the poli

Covered Losses and Payment Percentages:

* Quadriplegia: 100% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
* Paraplegia: 50% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
* Hemiplegia: 50% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
* Both Hands or Both Feet: 50% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
* One Hand and One Foot: 50% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
* One Arm or One Leg: 25% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
* One Hand or One Foot: 25% of the Scheduled Benefit [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
```

Important Notes:

- * The Principal does not pay an Accidental Death and Dismemberment benefit for any paralysis caused by a stroke [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
- * Paralysis must be determined by a Physician to be permanent, complete, and irreversible [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56]
- * Total payment for all losses that result from the same accident will not exceed the Scheduled Benefit (or approved)
- * Payment for Loss will be to the Member [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56].

Definitions:

- * "Loss of Use" means a total and irrevocable loss of voluntary movement, which has continued for 12 consecutive months
- * "Quadriplegia" means total paralysis of all four limbs [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56].
- * "Paraplegia" means total paralysis of both lower limbs [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56].
- * "Hemiplegia" means paralysis of one arm and one leg on the same side of the body [Principal-Sample-Life-Insurance-Policy, Page 56].

These guidelines are subject to the terms and conditions of the policy, including the Benefit Qualifications described in the policy.
